Numb. 4076

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday November 9. to Monday November 13. 1704.

St. James's, Novemb. 12. The following Addreſs from the County of Northumberland has been preſented to Her Majeſty.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Deputy-Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace and Grand Jury, at the General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace held for the County of Northumberland, at Alnwicke upon the 4th day of October, in the Third Year of Your Majeſty's happy Reign.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

HAving, purſuant to Your Majeſty's Proclamation, approached the Throne of Grace, with grateful Acknowledgements for that compleat Victory obtained by Your Majeſty's Forces in Germany, under the valiant and prudent Conduct of the Duke of Marlborough, in which Your Majeſty's Arms (by the Divine Aſſiſtance) have extended their Power and Honour beyond any of Your Predeceſſors, even from the Thames to the Danube:

And the ſame God having ſince continued the like Favour, in carrying Your Maritime Powers from the German and Britiſh Shores to the Mediterranean, and crowning them with Succeſs there againſt the ſuperior Strength and advantagiouſly prepared Fleets of Your Enemies:

We hold it our bounden Duty, with Gratitude, to acknowledge Your Majeſty's wiſe and excellent Conduct in the Adminiſtration of theſe great Affairs; which do reſult ſo much to the Advantage of the Common Cauſe, againſt the great Enemy of the Peace and Liberties of Europe.

May it pleaſe the ſame Divine Goodneſs and Wiſdom always to preſide in Your Majeſty's Councils, to confirm the Courage and aſſiſt the Conduct of Your Commanders, and ſtrengthen the Hands and Hearts of all that fight for Us, and to ſupport the Scepter in Your Royal Hand, till You have prevailed over the Oppreſſor of Europe, and effectually obtained the pious and glorious Deſigns propoſed by Your Majeſty, in eſtabliſhing a laſting Peace through all its States and Kingdoms.

May the good God (as he has done Your Arms) extend the Length of Your Days beyond any of Your Anceſtors, to enjoy the Happineſs (after all Your great Fatigues) of many peaceful Years Your Self, and all Your Subjects the Conſorts of Your Majeſty's long Reign over them.

Given under the Seal of the Seſſions at the Seſſions aforeſaid.

The following Addreſs from the County of Cambridge, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir Paul Whitchcote, Bar. introduced by his Grace the Duke of Bedford, Lord Lieutenant of the ſaid County.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Deputy-Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, and Grand Jury, aſſembled at the General Quarter-Seſſions holden for the County of Cambridge, on Thurſday the Fifth Day of October, in the Third Year of Your Majeſty's Reign; together with the Clergy, and other Gentlemen and Freeholders of the ſaid County.

IT is with Inexpreſſible Joy that we crave Leave at this time (being the firſt Opportunity, next after our returning moſt humble Thanks to Almighty God for the late Great and Glorious Victories obtained by Your Majeſty's Arms againſt the French and Bavarians) to approach Your Sacred Perſon with an earneſt Deſire of Congratulating Your Majeſty for the ſame; And that Your Majeſty's moſt Juſt and Auſpicious Government has ſo well retrieved the Honour of this Your Nation, which ſeems to be an Heavenly Benediction for Your Gracious Bounty and Charity, lately ſhewed to Your Poor Clergy; and that You may proceed with the like Glorious Succeſſes, and at length procure an Honourable and Laſting Peace for all Chriſtendom; and after that, enjoy a Long and Happy Reign over us, are the hearty Prayers of Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Obedient Subjects and Servants.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Haſlemere, was preſented to Her Majeſty by George Vernon, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Conſtable, Burghers, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Haſlemere in the County of Surrey.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Loyal Subjects, the Conſtable, Burghers, and other Inhabitants of Your Ancient Borough of Haſlemere, do with Hearts full of Joy and Satisfaction congratulate the late Glorious Victory obtained by Your Majeſty's Arms, under the Conduct and Bravery of His Grace the Duke of Marlborough, whereby Your Majeſty has reſcued the Empire from the Tyranny of the Great Oppreſſor, and put a Stop to the boundleſs Ambition of France.

We alſo think our ſelves in Duty obliged to commemorate the great Succeſs Your Royal Fleet has lately had under the Command of Sir George Rooke; by which Your Enemies have felt the force of Engliſh Courage by Sea as well as Land.

As we have in all dutiful Acknowledgement paid our Thanks to Heaven for theſe Great and Signal Bleſſings, ſo we ſhall ſtill continue our Prayers, That all Your Majeſty's Enterprizes may be attended with the like Succeſs; and that every Year of Your Majeſty's Reign may give us freſh Occaſions to renew our Joy and Triumph; and that Your Majeſty may out-ſhine the Glory of Your Predeceſſors, and be a long and zealous Supporter of the Church of England as by Law eſtabliſhed; and that all Your Subjects may, with us, endeavour to make Your Majeſty the happieſt Queen, as Your Royal Care has been to make us the happieſt People in the Univerſe.

The following Addreſſes from the County of Radnor, and Borough of New Radnor, were preſented to Her Majeſty by the two Repreſentatives of the ſaid County and Borough.

The humble Addreſs of the Deputy-Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace of the County of Radnor, at the General Quarter-Seſſions of the Peace, held at Preſteign the Third Day of October, in the Third Year of Her Majeſty's Reign, Queen Anne, over England, &c. Annoq; Domini 1704.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

TO permit us with the deepeſt Senſe of Gratitude and Duty that Loyal Subjects are capable of, to expreſs our Thankfulneſs for Your Majeſty's Juſt and Prudent Government; the Benefit whereof extends not only to Your own Subjects, who are happy under Your Reign in the wiſe Management of Your Treaſury, and in Your Majeſty's munificent laying out of Your own Revenue for the Support of the Oppreſſed, and the Eaſe of Your own People; but alſo at the ſame time Your Forces by Sea and Land are ſucceſsfully employ'd againſt the Common Enemy. Heaven has given ſuch Succeſs to the Conduct of Your Majeſty's General, the Duke of Marlborough, that is ſcarce to be paralleld in any Hiſtory: For which, as we have returned our Publick Thanks to God Almighty, ſo we offer up our conſtant Prayers for the long Continuance of Your Majeſty's Reign over us.

The humble Addreſs of the Bayliff, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the Ancient Borough and Corporation of New Radnor.

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, humbly crave Leave to preſent Your Majeſty our moſt humble and hearty Congratulations for that Great and Glorious Victory, obtain'd by the Forces under the Command of the Duke of Marlborough, over the United Forces of the French and Bavarians: A Victory adorn'd with Succeſs ſuitable to the Wiſdom that contrived that March into Germany, and the Courage and Conduct ſhew'd in the proſecuting it. We have been ſenſible at home of the Benefits of Your moſt Auſpicious Reign in the lowering of Intereſt to the Eaſe of Your Subjects in their Taxes, Your providing for the Neceſſities of the Inferior Clergy, and in Your Majeſty's wiſe and ſteady Adminiſtration.

While at the ſame time, Madam, You are Eſteem'd abroad the Arbiter of Europe, You Relieve the Perſecuted, You Support the Oppreſſed, and Deliver Nations from imminent Ruine. We have no Return to make for ſo great Bleſſings, but a ſteady Reſolution of Obedience to Your Majeſty's Government, and to offer up our moſt ardent Vows to Heaven for the long Continuance for Your Majeſty's happy Reign over us.

In Teſtimony whereof we have hereunto affixed our Common Seal this 30th Day of October, in the Third Year of Her Majeſty's Reign.

Reign, Queen Anne, over England, Scotland, France, and Ireland, &c. Annoq; Domini 1704.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Droitwich was preſented by Charles Cocks and Edward Foley Eſqs; their Repreſentatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of Your Majeſty's moſt obedient Subjects, the Bayliffs and Burgeſſes of this Your Majeſty's ancient and ever Loyal Corporation of Droitwich, in the County of Worceſter.

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, do in moſt humble Manner preſume to congratulate Your Majeſty upon the great and glorious Victory Your Majeſty hath obtained by Your Arms both by Land and Sea, under the prudent Conduct and great Courage of the moſt noble Duke of Marlborough, and brave Sir George Rooke, againſt the Common Enemies of Europe. And may the Great God of Heaven preſerve Your Majeſty to reign long over us, and continue the Succeſs of Your Forces, till there be no Enemy left to diſpute Your Power, but only to admire Your Greatneſs; which ſhall always be the Prayers and Endeavours of Your moſt Dutiful Subjects. In Teſtimony whereof, we have hereunto affixed our Common Seal the Second day of November, 1704.

GOD Save the QUEEN.

The following Addreſs from the City of Lichfield was preſented by Richard Dyott Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Bayliffs and Citizens of the City of Lichfield.

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Bayliffs and Citizens of Your ancient and loyal City of Lichfield, with all Humility beg Leave (amongſt the reſt of Your Subjects) to congratulate Your Majeſty upon the Glorious Victories obtained by Your Forces in Germany, (in Conjunction with thoſe of Your Allies) under the Conduct of Your Heroick General, his Grace the Duke of Marlborough, over the daring Armies of an Ambitious Prince, and the Common Enemy of Europe; as alſo for the happy Succeſs of Your Naval Forces, under the Command of Your Experienced Admiral Sir George Rooke.

And as we are bound in Duty to return all Praiſes and Thanks to Almighty God (the Giver of all Victory) for theſe his ſignal Bleſſings to Your Majeſty; ſo ſhall it be our Prayers, That he will be Your Defence againſt all Your Enemies; that the Name of Queen ANNE may be as Terrible to them, as it is Grateful to Your good Subjects, That Your Majeſty may be the Care of Heaven, That Your Reign may be long and proſperous, and always attended with a prudent and faithful Council, an unanimous Parliament, truſty and courageous Generals, and an uninterrupted Series of Victories, till You have no more Enemies left to be conquered.

Dated under our Common Seal the 21ſt Day of October, 1704.

The following Addreſs was preſented by Anthony Morgan, William Stephens, Eſqs; and ſeveral other Gentlemen of the Iſle of Wight.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen and Clergy of the Iſle of Wight.

MADAM,

MAY it pleaſe Your Majeſty that we aſſume the Liberty to congratulate the late Glorious Victories, obtained by Your Majeſty's Forces under the Command of Your Captain General, the Duke of Marlborough; and the happy Succeſs at Sea of Your Fleet under the Conduct of Sir George Rooke; by which Your Majeſty will have the Immortal Honour of being the Protector and Preſerver of the Liberties of Europe: And it ſhall be our continual Prayer, That Your Majeſty's Arms may always Conquer, and that Your Reign may be long and happy over us.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Yarmouth, in the Iſle of Wight, was preſented by Henry Holmes and Anthony Morgan Eſqs; their Repreſentatives in Parliament.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Burgeſſes and other Inhabitants, of the Borough of Yarmouth, in the Iſle of Wight.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE cou'd never have wiſh'd for an Occaſion of approaching Your Majeſty, more glorious to Your Self, or happier for Your People, than that now offer'd us, upon the great and ſignal Defeat of the Common Enemy, by Your own, and the Troops of Your Allies, under the Command and auſpicious Conduct of the Duke of Marlborough.

By this deciſive Action Your Majeſty has given a new Face to the Affairs of Europe, and obtained for Your Self the moſt Illuſtrious Title of being the Preſerver of it.

When we therefore congratulate Your Majeſty upon this Succeſs, as here we moſt humbly beg Leave to do, we neither prevaricate with Heaven, or flatter our Prince, but ſhew our ſelves grateful to both, to God, as the Author, to Your Majeſty, as the Means of ſo wonderful a Bleſſing.

Madam, may Victory ſtill attend Your juſt and righteous Arms, till having no Enemy left to contend with, no foe to ſubdue, You eſtabliſh a laſting Peace, to Your own immortal Glory, and the general Good of Chriſtendom: So pray Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful Subjects, who have hereunto affixed our Common Seal this 6th day of November, 1704.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Morpeth was preſented by Emanuel How Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Bayliffs, Aldermen, Free Burgeſſes, and other Inhabtrants, of Your Majeſty's ancient Corporation of Morpeth,, in the County of Northumberland.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

THO' Providence has placed us towards the remoteſt Parts of the Kingdom, yet we humbly crave Leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, That we have as deep a Senſe of the happy Influence of Your auſpicious Reign, as any of thoſe who are bleſſed with a Situation nearer to Your Royal Preſence.

It is this Senſe which fills us with an unfeigned Joy, when we hear of Your Victories abroad; and particularly moves us at this time to congratulate Your Majeſty upon that Glorious one, obtained by Your Majeſty's Arms, under the Conduct of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough.

If we look back into former Ages, and conſider the happieſt State and Conditon that any of our Anceſtors ever ſaw, how imperfect does it appear, and how ſhort does it fall of what we now enjoy; under Your Majeſty, both in Church and State?

The Church, though ſhe was the beſt conſtituted in the World, yet wanted to have ſome of her immediate Servants and Miniſters plac'd in Circumſtances above Scandal and Contempt, which Your Majeſty's late Royal Bounty and Munificence has compleatly done.

The State, ſince we have ſeen the Scepter in Your Hands, has all the Advantages of Liberty beyond a Commonwealth; and all the Marks of Monarchy, without the Danger of Tyranny or Arbitrary Power: And ſince by Your admirable Conduct we have all the Glory that attends Conqueſts, and at the ſame time are Strangers to the Effects and Calamities of a War, we are become the Wonder and the Envy of the World.

What Praiſe, what Gratitude to God and Your Majeſty, muſt not theſe ineſtimable Bleſſings inſpire us with? May all Your Councils and Deſigns be attended with the ſame Succeſs that they have been hitherto bleſſed with; and that the Imperial Crown which You now wear with ſo much Luſtre and Advantage, may very late give place to that incorruptible one which is laid up for You; ſhall be the conſtant Prayers of Your Majeſty's moſt Loyal and moſt Obedient Subjects.

Given under our Hands and Common Seal the Sixth Day of October, Annoq; Domini 1704.

The following Addreſs from the County of Lincoln was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Rt. Hon. Peregrine Bertie Eſq; Vice-Chamberlain to Her Majeſty, in the abſence of the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Lindſey, Lord Great Chamberlain of England, and Lord Lieutenant of the ſaid County.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, Deputy Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, and Gentlemen, of Your Majeſty's County of Lincoln.

MADAM,

THE Two main Qualities for great Deſigns, are Wiſdom in Council, and Diligence in Execution; both which are eminent in Your Majeſty; the one is plainly ſeen from Your Majeſty's late Undertaking in Germeny; the other from the Choice of Your General the Duke of Marlborough; by whoſe Diligence and Conduct Your Majeſty's Arms have gain'd a compleat Victory over the United Powers of France and Bavaria: A Victory fatal to the Uſurpations of France, but happy in its Conſequences to Your Majeſty's Dominions; a Victory that has ſaved an Empire, ſcourg'd the Inſolence of the Bavarians, rais'd the Engliſh Name to its ancient Glory, and given great Hopes of retrieving the Ballance of Europe: And for this, not only England, but all Your Majeſty's Allies, are indebted to Your Majeſty, and juſtly pay their Congratulations for the ſame.

France (Madam) has often boaſted her Policy in the Salique Law; but England's Wiſdom ſhines in the Glorious Actions of Your Majeſty, and to the Honour of Queens. The World will while it laſts remember, That in England there were Two who ſaved it from its Ruine.

Long (Madam) may You reign over us, that we may be ſafe and happy, as You are great and good.

The

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Boſton was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Right Honourable Peregrine Bertie, Eſq; Vice-Chamberlain to Her Majeſty, and Sir Edward Irby Bar. their Repreſentatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Clergy, Town-Clerk, Common-Council, Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of Your Majeſty's Ancient Borough of Boſton in Your County of Lincoln.

WHen we reflect, Madam, upon the forward Advances the French King made towards the Deſtruction of the remaining Liberties of Europe, which carried a fatal Aſpect upon our moſt Holy Religion; and now finds his Hopes fruſtrated by the amazing Succeſſes of Your Majeſty's Arms, with thoſe of Your Allies, engaged againſt that Common Enemy of the Rights of Mankind: We cannot but thankfully acknowledge therein the Hand of Divine Providence; and at the ſame time admire the great Wiſdom and Secrecy of Your Majeſty and Your Councils; the prudent Management of Your Treaſury, and the extraordinary Diligence, Bravery and Conduct of Your Commanders, his Grace the Duke of Marlborough and Sir George Rooke: The illuſtrious Means of whom in thoſe Succeſſes, together with Your Exemplary Piety, and Royal Bounty to Your Poor Clergy, and Tender Regard of all Your Subjects, with Your watchful Care of, and Fidelity to Your diſtreſſed Ally, has raiſed Your Fame, Madam, to the higheſt Pitch of Humane Glory.

And as the Bleſſings of Heaven upon Your Majeſty fill our Hearts with Joy, ſo we are daily ſenſible of our great Happineſs under Your Auſpicious, Wiſe, and Pious Government; and fervently pray, That Almighty God will prolong Your happy Reign over us, which is an unvaluable Bleſſing to Your People, and give You, Madam, Your Heart's Deſire, that we and all Your Subjects may ſo live, as becomes the happy People of ſo Great and Good a Queen.

The following Addreſs from the Town of Northampton was preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir Matthew Dudley, Bar. and Francis Arundell, Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Northampton, their Recorder.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, the Right Honourable the Recorder, the Deputy-Recorder, Juſtices of the Peace, Bayliffs, and Burgeſſes, Gentlemen, and others, Inhabitants of the Town of Northampton.

WE Your Majeſty's Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave, moſt joyfully to congratulate Your Majeſty on the Glorious and Remarkable Succeſs of Your Arms, both by Sea and Land; and particularly on the abſolute Victory obtained by that Great Captain, the Duke of Marlborough, in Conjunction with Your Majeſty's Allies, near the Danube; whoſe ſwift (though long) Marches, and Expedition of thoſe grand and difficult Attempts, which were proſecuted and effected by him, juſtly deſerve to be ever recorded in Hiſtory, to the Glory of the Engliſh Nation.

This, Madam, makes us with the utmoſt Satisfaction reflect on the Happineſs we enjoy under Your Majeſty's Auſpicious Government; You having, ever ſince Your Acceſſion to the Throne, given unparallel'd Inſtances of Your great Care and Concern for the true Intereſt of Europe, in oppoſing Tyranny and Arbitrary Power, and extending Your Kindneſs and Indulgence to all Your Subjects.

That Your Parliament may effectually Aſſiſt Your Majeſty to proceed in Your Glorious Endeavours, to reduce the Common Enemy of Chriſtendom, and all Your Subjects be unanimous to promote the ſame Deſign; and that Your Majeſty's Arms may always be attended with Succeſs, and Your Reign long and proſperous; ſhall be the daily Prayer of us Your Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

The following Addreſs has alſo been preſented to Her Majeſty.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Presbyterian Miniſters, and thoſe of their Perſwaſion in the North of Ireland.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

AS we have Religiouſly obſerv'd the Publick Thankſgiving appointed by the Government for that Glorious Victory obtained over the French and Bavarians by Your Majeſty's Forces, under the Renown'd Conduct and Bravery of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough; ſo we humbly beg Leave to congratulate Your Sacred Majeſty upon this happy, ſeaſonable, and never to be forgotten Succeſs, together with all the other powerful Effects of Your Majeſty's Arms, wherewith it hath pleaſed God Almighty to bleſs Your Majeſty, in Conjunction with Your Allies; hoping that by this means the Divine Goodneſs may give Your Majeſty a further Opportunity of exerting Your Princely Compaſſion, Tender Care and Fervent Zeal, towards the Relief of the diſtreſſed Proteſtants abroad, ſo agreeable to Your Royal Goodneſs to Your Proteſtant Subjects at home, of whom we are a conſiderable Part in this Kingdom.

We ſhall always take Care to maintain an unſhaken Fidelity to Your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, according to our known Loyal Principles, and in our Stations, according to our Power, to ſupport and defend the Proteſtant Succeſſion as by Law eſtabliſhed. That God may bleſs Your Majeſty with a long and proſperous Reign, and afterwards exalt You to an incorruptible Crown, is the earneſt Prayer of us, who in our own Name, and in the Name of thoſe we repreſent, ſubſcribe our ſelves, (may it pleaſe Your Majeſty) Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful, moſt Loyal, and moſt Obedient Subjects.

All which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very Graciouſly.

Abrantes. Nov. 4. N. S. Lieutenant-General Windham, with the Engliſh Foot under his Command, came and encamped near this place the 31ſt paſt. Yeſterday the Earl of Galway went to Eſtremos, to confer with the Conde de San Vincente, Governor of Arms in Alentejo, about Quarters for the Engliſh Forces which are to Winter in that Province. The Dutch Forces marched yeſterday to their Quarters at Tomar, Punhete, Tonques, and other Places in our Neighbourhood. The King of Portugal is come to Tomar, in his way to Liſbon. The King of Spain is at Coimbre.

Lisbon, Novemb. 6. N. S. The Engliſh and Dutch Tranſport Ships are come into the Tajo, and the Forces on board them will ſhortly march to the Quarters aſſigned them. Sir John Leake, with the Squadron under his Command, conſiſting upwards of 20 Ships of the Line, ſailed this day towards Gibraltar, with a ſupply of Proviſions and Ammunition for that Place, before which the French have left only 5 or 6 Frigats; Monſieur Pointy being gone with the reſt of his Squadron to Cadiz, where he has laid up his biggeſt Ships. We have an Account from Gibraltar, That the Marquis de Villadarias, who beſieges that Town by Land, opened his Trenches the 21ſt paſt, but had made very little Progreſs; and that the Prince of Heſſe has raiſed a Battery upon one of the Hills near it, which commands the Enemy's Works.

Falmouth, November 6. This day ſailed hence a Dutch Man of War, and a Privateer of 26 Guns, with 7 Prizes under their Convoy, bound for Fluſhing, 2 of them laden with Sugars from St. Domingo, 1 with Furs from Canada, and 1 with Wine from Bourdeaux.

Plymouth, Nov. 7. This day came in here Her Majeſty's Ship the Looe, which ſailed from Newfoundland about five Weeks ago in Company of 13 Sail of Merchant-men, but was ſeparated from them 10 days ago in ſtormy Weather. Her Majeſty's Ships the Hazardous and Layſtoffe ſailed this day for the Downes, and under their Convoy the William and Shepard, John Beach Maſter, from Liſbon; the Mayflower, William Mills Maſter, the Edward and Sarah, Henry Moore Maſter, and the Hurdis Gally; being all bound for London.

Hull, Nov. 8. A Fleet of Dutch Merchant Ships bound to Amſterdam ſaild hence the 6th Inſtant, under the Convoy of two of their Men of War.

Cowes, Nov. 8. Yeſterday was brought in here by a Privateer of Fluſhing, a Prize called the Revenge of Dunkirk, formerly the Bridgewater Packet-Boat, taken from us by the French.

Yarmouth, Nov. 10. The 7th Inſtant ſailed hence the Ormond and Betty Gallies, laden with Herrings for the Streights. That day and the 8th came into our Roads about 40 Sail of Laden Colliers from Newcaſtle, which ſailed again this day to the Southward.

There are Three Mails due from Holland.

It being reſolved, That one hundred Seamen, ſuch as have been diſabled in the Service of the Navy, ſhall be forthwith received and provided for in the Hoſpital at Greenwich; His Royal Highneſs, Lord High Admiral, has commanded this Notice to be given thereof, that ſo all ſuch Perſons, whoſe Conditions entitle them to the Benefits of the aforeſaid Hoſpital, may attend at the Admiralty-Office, on Monday the 20th of this Month, to make out their Pretentions.

By the Receiver-General for Prizes.

WHereas the Ships Black Eagle of Teneriffe, and Providence Ketch, taken by Her Majeſty's Ship the Hampſhire, have been condemned and ſold as Prizes; and their Neat Proceeds being now adjuſted;

The Receiver-General doth hereby give Notice, That on Monday the 20th of November Inſtant, at the Office (for Payment of Captors) in the Little Piazza's, Covent-Garden, he will then pay each Captor his juſt Proportion of the ſaid Prizes, according to the Directions in Her Majeſty's moſt Gracious Declaration for the Encouragement of Her Ships of War, &c.

Advertiſements.

This is to give Notice, That if any Soldiers or Seamen, belonging to Her Majeſty's Army or Navy, have by any Misfortune receiv'd any Prejudice in their Sight, they may apply themſelves to Dr. READ, Her Majeſty's Oculiſt, who lives in Durham-yard in the Strand, London, with a Certificate from their Superior Officers, that they are not in a Condition to pay for the Cure, and they ſhall be cured gratis by the ſaid Dr. READ, who makes it his chief Care to ſerve the Poor, as he has ſeveral Hundreds that have been recommended as ſuch fit Objects by the Miniſters of their reſpective Pariſhes. Theſe charitable Cures have had ſo good Effect, (as appears by the daily Thanks and Prayers of the Poor) that it hath encouraged him to continue his Generoſity, which he does all at his own Charge.

The
